

Proskauer Announces Newest Adopt-a-School Partner, Alliance Dr. Olga Mohan High School

March 14, 2018

March 14, 2018 (LOS ANGELES) – Proskauer is pleased to announce our newest Adopt-a-School partner, Alliance Dr. Olga Mohan High School, in Los Angeles. Alliance Dr. Olga Mohan High School was awarded the prestigious National Blue Ribbon school designation by the United States Department of Education in 2017 and ranks among the top 1% of high schools nationwide by US News & World Report.

Adopt-a-School is Proskauer's signature education initiative for high school students, offering workshops to promote career and college readiness. By developing mentoring relationships and building skills, we seek to motivate and inspire future leaders and educate young people to their fullest potential.

Alliance Dr. Olga Mohan High School is an independent charter school designed to prepare students for college admission and life-long success. It is part of The Alliance College-Ready Public Schools, the largest charter school network in Los Angeles. Dr. Olga Mohan High School serves a population of students from low-income communities by providing an exceptional education for its ambitious and accomplished scholars.
