

Tony Oncidi and Rob Freeman Named to The Hollywood Reporter's 2018 Power Lawyers List

April 9, 2018

April 9, 2018 (LOS ANGELES/NEW YORK) – Ranked among the top 100 entertainment lawyers, Proskauer partners Tony Oncidi and Rob Freeman have been named to The Hollywood Reporter's 2018 list of Power Lawyers.

Noted for advising in high-stakes disputes, Tony represents CAA in a variety of matters and is an advisor to Endemol Shine Group, studios and production companies of A-list stars on labor matters, including sexual harassment. He is the head of Proskauer's Labor & Employment practice in the Los Angeles office and represents employers and management in all aspects of labor relations and employment law, including litigation, preventive counseling and wage and hour matters.

Advising on deals that transform the way in which we consume television and film content, Rob is noted for advising Hulu on its digital carriage deals before launching its live TV service, and for working with Discovery Communications on its $14.6 billion acquisition of Scripps Network and its joint venture with The Enthusiast Network. He is co-chair of Proskauer's Technology, Media & Telecommunications Group and a member of the Sports Group. He specializes in structuring, negotiating and closing television and film content transactions.
