

Proskauer Bolsters Market-Leading Labor and Employment Practice with Addition of Kate Gold in Los Angeles

February 19, 2019

February 19, 2019 (Los Angeles) – International law firm Proskauer announced today the arrival of Kate Gold as a partner in its Labor & Employment Department, resident in the Los Angeles office.

"California's legal and regulatory landscape is complex and always evolving. Kate's experience and expertise as a seasoned, high-profile employment attorney is a strong addition to our thriving practice in California and around the country. We are delighted to welcome her to the team," said Anthony J. Oncidi, partner and head of Labor & Employment in Proskauer's Los Angeles office.

Ms. Gold has over 25 years of experience representing clients in a range of industries, across all areas of employment law. An experienced litigator, she has represented clients in all types of employment-related suits, including class and collective actions, discrimination and harassment, non-compete and wage/hour matters. In addition to litigating, she routinely counsels clients on matters involving the full range of state and federal employment issues. Ms. Gold received her B.A. and J.D. from the University of California Berkeley.

"We are pleased to welcome Kate to Proskauer," said Elise Bloom, partner and member of the firm's Executive Committee. "She will be an important strategic addition to the continued growth of our Los Angeles office and will further enhance our client offerings in the evolving area of employment law."

Ms. Gold added, "I am thrilled to be joining Proskauer's top-tier employment practice which provides a great platform to expand upon my existing client service."

Proskauer has one of the largest and most trusted Labor & Employment Practices in the world and has handled virtually every type of issue for the largest and most dynamic companies for more than 75 years.
