

Top Ten Employment Considerations for Asset Managers to Consider for Reopening the Workplace During Covid-19

May 20, 2020

As employers continue to adjust to the new reality caused by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, many are now planning for the future. That future raises many difficult questions for employers including when and how will employees return to work, and what steps should they – and must they – take to protect their workforce and their business.

Following their highly successful webinar on the topic earlier this month, Proskauer Labor & Employment partners Harris M. Mufson and Evandro C. Gigante will be joined by Private Funds partner Camille Higonnet to discuss the top ten employment considerations for asset managers to keep in mind as they and their portfolio companies plan to reopen their workplaces.
