

Proskauer Advises Apiary Capital on Closing of Apiary Capital Partners II

May 7, 2024

London, May 7, 2024 - Proskauer, a leading international law firm, today announced that it advised Apiary Capital LLP on the closing of its second fund, Apiary Capital Partners II. The fund reached a final close of £240 million in total commitments, substantially exceeding its target.

Apiary Capital Partners II will focus on the UK lower mid-market targeting asset-light businesses with defensive characteristics across fragmented markets in the business services, financial and technology services, healthcare, and education sectors.

The fund received significant support from existing LPs and welcomed several new institutional investors. The fund's investor base includes endowments and foundations, public and private pensions, consultants, fund of funds, and family offices, with around 60% of investors from the United States and the balance from the UK and Europe.
