Sydney Cone is an associate in the Labor & Employment Law Department and a member of the Employment Litigation & Arbitration Group.

During her time at Proskauer, Sydney has focused on a wide range of employment matters, including employment discrimination investigations and litigation, non-compete and trade secrets, employment and severance agreements, and handbooks and training. In addition to Sydney's litigation practice, Sydney has experience assisting on transactions that involve a myriad of labor and employment issues.

Sydney earned her J.D. cum laude from Tulane University Law School, where she was the Senior Online Editor of the Tulane Maritime Law Journal, a Legal Research and Writing Fellow, and co-president of Tulane Women in the Law. Prior to law school, Sydney was a paralegal at a white-collar criminal and civil litigation law firm and worked in the family law unit at a legal aid organization.
