Henrique Carneiro is a Litigation Associate in the Firm's New York office.

Henrique is a member of the firm's Antitrust Litigation Practice Group. He represents large clients in several complex antitrust litigation matters spanning the pharmaceutical, agriculture, energy, and sports industries. Most recently, he was a member of the trial team that secured a defense jury verdict on behalf of Sanderson Farms in In re Broiler Chicken Antitrust Litigation, a price-fixing case involving direct-purchaser damages claims in excess of $7 billion.

Henrique is also a member of the firm's Appellate Practice Group. He has argued before the US Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and has represented clients in bankruptcy, administrative law, and criminal appeals in several federal appellate courts.

Henrique earned his J.D. from Northwestern Pritzker School of Law in 2022.

Henrique is also a jazz trumpet player. He graduated from The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music in 2018 and has performed at various venues in New York City, including Jazz at Lincoln Center.
