Jared DuBosar is an associate in the Litigation Department.

Jared works on a wide range of civil matters, specifically in the areas of commercial litigation, fiduciary litigation, and insurance coverage. He has handled all levels of civil disputes, starting from pre-suit investigation to trial. He has substantial experience running all aspects of discovery and drafting dispositive briefings.

Jared is also a member of the litigation team representing the Financial Oversight and Management Board in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico's bankruptcy proceedings.

Jared earned his J.D. from Florida State University College of Law, where he graduated second in his class. After law school, Jared clerked for two federal judges—United States District Judge Donald Middlebrooks (S.D. Fla.) and United States Magistrate Judge Tu Pham (W.D. Tenn.).
