John Goldfinch is a partner in the Global Finance practice, London's Structured Finance team and a member of the Firm's Private Capital industry group.

John is a leading practitioner in structured finance, securitization, and derivatives, with a practice encompassing the full range of derivative products and securitization asset classes. His expertise includes equity, credit rates, collateralized loan obligations (CLOs) and collateralized debt obligations (CDOs), lease receivables, trade receivables, non-performing loans (NPLs), covered bond transactions, and secured structured lending. He advises banks, funds, and asset managers across Europe, the United States, and Asia.

Recognized as a leading lawyer in the European market, John is ranked by prominent legal directories such as Chambers & Partners, Legal 500, and IFLR. He is also a regular speaker on regulatory issues, with a specific focus on risk retention, at major industry conferences covering both the European and U.S. markets.
