Joshua M. Newville is a partner in the Litigation Department and a member of Proskauer's Securities Litigation Group and the Asset Management Litigation team.

Josh handles securities litigation, enforcement and regulatory matters, representing corporations and senior executives in civil and criminal investigations. In addition, Josh advises registered investment advisers and private fund managers on regulatory compliance, SEC exams, MNPI/insider trading and related risks, and has substantial experience conducting internal investigations.

Before joining Proskauer, Josh was senior counsel in the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's Division of Enforcement, where he investigated and prosecuted violations of the federal securities laws. Josh served in the Enforcement Division's Asset Management Unit, a specialized unit focusing on investment advisers and the asset management industry. His prior experience with the SEC provides a unique perspective to help asset managers manage risk and handle regulatory issues.
