Stéphanie Martinier is an M&A partner and member of the Private Capital Team.

Stéphanie is located in the Paris office and licensed to practice law in both France and New York.

Stéphanie advises French and international clients regarding cross-border transactions and commercial matters. She represents private equity funds and corporate entities in business acquisitions, sales and joint ventures, as well as in the negotiation of complex commercial contracts and in corporate restructurings.

Stéphanie focuses in particular in the industrial sector, and on technology and financial companies.

Stéphanie also represents clients in litigation matters relating to M&A transactions and shareholders' disputes, and regularly counsels clients regarding compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and French data privacy regulations.

In addition, Stéphanie manages the pro bono work of the Paris office and, as part of this commitment, provides legal training on business creation to young entrepreneurs through the not-for-profit Yes Akademia.
