

Gopal Narsimhamurthy

Managing Director, Funds

Gopal Narsimhamurthy is a Managing Director within the Funds Rating Group at KBRA. Gopal has been with KBRA since 2014 and has worked across a number of analytical areas including structured finance, public finance, and project finance.

From September 2017 to August 2019, he relocated to Dublin, Ireland, to provide analytical coverage for European structured finance transactions and support KBRA's growth initiatives across the region. Previously, he was an associate analyst at Moody's Investors Service, where he specialized in higher education and health care credit analysis.

Gopal holds a Bachelor of Arts in economics from Rutgers University and a Master of Public Administration with a concentration in finance from New York University.