

Owen Davis

Owen Davis
Corporate Sustainability & Regulatory Advisor
Modern West Advisory

odavis@modernwestadvisory.com

Owen is a Corporate Sustainability & Regulatory Advisor at Modern West Advisory Inc. He supports companies to identify and prepare for existing and emerging sustainability and ESG risks, such as greenwashing in reporting and marketing, mandatory ESG reporting requirements and integrated reporting. Owen was admitted to the Supreme Court of Western Australia in 2008. He has since worked as a lawyer at several of Australia's top boutique law firms and acted for a broad range of multinational companies. His relevant experience includes acting for Australia's leading clean and renewable energy provider, global and national resources companies, and state and privately held utilities and infrastructure companies across a range of contentious and non-contentious regulatory, commercial, and corporate matters. He has also advised private companies on corporate governance, environmental protection laws and securities regulatory proceedings. He was a director of RSPCA Tasmania, an animal welfare charity, for a period of around 5 years.